Dear Parent/Carer

Year 9 Class Reader – The Woman in Black

In September, Year 9 English lessons will start with a study of Susan Hill's gothic novel, 'The Woman in Black'. As with the set texts that they will study for GCSE, we advise students to purchase their own copy so that they can annotate and highlight the key scenes. It also means that they will have this text to revise from as the unit progresses and, most importantly, it means they can read the novel before we start the teaching next term.

The recommended edition can be found below, and is available from WH Smiths, Waterstones and Amazon. However, any copy would be preferable to none.

ISBN 978-0-099-28847-3
