

English Language

Syllabus
AQA

Core content:

Paper 1 Language and the Individual
40%:

- Textual variations – different purposes, audiences and genres
- Children's Language and Development – data analysis and multimodal language

Accent discrimination is alive and kicking in England, study suggests

British Academy to feature large-scale project exploring prejudice based on how people speak

Home > TV > Current Affairs > There needs to be a more diverse range of voices reading the news

There needs to be a more diverse range of voices reading the news

Huw Edwards is a rare regional voice on British television

Paper 2 Language Diversity and Change
40%:

- Sociolects, dialect, changes over time
- Language Discourses - how texts are produced to convey views and opinions about language issues.

Can we have gender equality if we're still using gendered language every day?

Comment

NEA Language in Action 20%:

- a language investigation
- a piece of original writing and commentary

How the English language has evolved like a living creature

Random changes play an outsized role in how we speak today

Top 25% English Language A Level results nationally in 2022